

New Teacher PLC

By building a New Teacher PLC, new teachers from multiple sites can come together to discuss data, share ideas, ask questions, and brainstorm solutions together, all without having to leave their own school. Using Swivl Robot allows other educators to observe how your instructional environment impacts student learning.

ESTIMATED TIME 5 min. prep, 60 min. mtg

BEST FOR Teacher Collaboration & Learning

GET STARTED

Host teacher using Swivl Robot

- Connect mobile device to Swivl Robot
- Launch Teams by Swivl app
- Turn marker on
- Plug earbud into marker. From the Teams by Swivl app, launch a live stream of your choice
 - For step by step directions, see Traditional Audio Setup using Zoom or MS Teams.
- Invite PLC members with live stream invitation link

Joining PLC members

- If you are NOT going to be moving around the classroom:
 - Join live stream platform from shared link on computer
- If you ARE going to be moving around the classroom:
 - Join live stream platform from shared link on your mobile device connected to your Swivl Robot

DIRECTIONS

Use this time to:

- Showcase how instructional environment supports student learning
- Compare and contrast standards aligned data
- Brainstorm classroom strategies for engagement, classroom management, instruction, etc.
- Collaborate on shared lessons between classes
- Review school/district data
- Reflect on needs
- Professional growth

New Teacher PLC Strategy Alternatives

STRATEGY 1

Record your meeting through the Live Streaming app to review at a later date or for someone who could not attend.

Host teacher

- Create a Session with the recording
- Share Session to PLC members

For all PLC members, use bookmarking and annotations to draw attention to key moments during the recording:

- Call to action
- Next steps
- Solutions
- Questions
- Any additional feedback that is thought of or remembered after the meeting has ended

STRATEGY 2

Live streaming with Teams by Swivl can be used to bring together groups of educators or stakeholders from different places for a variety of reasons.

- Back to School Leadership Planning
- Coaching Debriefs
- Parent Support
- New Teacher Programs
- Principal Meetings