

M2

Educators share the value of M2, the intelligent co-teacher ▶

See what happens when teachers and coaches get to co-teach with M2 — our AI-powered classroom partner that delivers live feedback, makes reflection easy and automatic, and supports instruction without adding more to a teacher's plate.

In this video, real teachers and instructional coaches share how M2 is helping them:

- Feel more supported and less alone in the classroom
- Save time with live feedback they can actually use the next day
- Build a stronger habit of reflection — for themselves and their students
- Stay in control while still getting daily insight and inspiration
